Call to Worship (*Please join in the words written in bold).

We come, for God gathers us here,
with that community formed by faith:
where the hungry are served first,
where the thirsty drink life's water.

We come, for God welcomes us here
into that home built by grace:
where the naked are clothed in robes of hope;
where the stranger is embraced as the long-lost prodigal.

We come, for God reunites us here,
sisters and brothers in that family sustained by love:
where the imprisoned model justice

INTIMATIONS

137th Glasgow Boys, Brigade Junior Section - Volunteers

Currently, the 137th Glasgow Boys' Brigade Junior Section is in desperate need of additional leaders (male or female) to help on a Thursday night. To find out more about volunteering within the Boys' Brigade, please view the national web page on volunteering. boys-brigade.org.uk/volunteering/

It is a fun and rewarding experience being a volunteer, and particularly in the BB, where you would be playing a part in the lives of our young people. The boys are aged 8-11 years.

Please give this opportunity serious consideration. You do not need to have been a member of either Boys' or Girl's Brigade, or need any particular experience. If there is an obstacle in your mind, I am sure that this may be overcome.

It is critical that we increase our staff numbers to enable us to continue. At this time, we will not be able to operate our section in the foreseeable future. Please don't wait till it is too late.

Please share this where you are able and give consideration to family and friends who would be suitable to help and may have an interest. In addition, Anchor Boys and Company Section would welcome some new staff as well.

If you wish to find out more, please email johnmcm@hotmail.com
