INTIMATIONS

Sole Nominee

Following the conclusion of today's service preached by the sole nominee, Rev Fiona Morrison, there will be a ballot by those in the congregation who are on the electoral register.

Worship 21st April

There is no longer any need for a joint service at St Andrew's as previously intimated. The service will be held as normal at 10am next Sunday here in the church.

Daffodil Club - Retiring Offerings in April

The Daffodil Club runs from Easterhouse Parish Church from Monday to Fridays. The club has been running for 30 years and some of our members attend it. It provides services which include a hot meal, physiotherapy, chiropody, and a hairdresser together with friendship for the Elderly in our community and is a lifeline for many.

The running of the club by 2 co-ordinators is solely charity funded by donation or grants from organisations and many volunteers. The Club only has enough money left in reserve to continue operating till August. A widespread drop in funding to charities across Scotland, married with rising running costs, has combined to push it to the brink. Please consider giving a donation by way of the retiring offering to help this Club continue to provide valuable local support.

Future Intimations

Intimations can be submitted for inclusion in the Order of Service and on www.mure.org by emailing intimations@mure.org.

Just to make everyone aware, that when you request an intimation via intimations@mure.org, to be put in Order of Service, this also goes to the website and Facebook. Please let us know if you do not want the information on all platforms. It may also be that you wish to adjust intimation for each platform.

Intimations can be submitted for inclusion in the Order of Service and on www.mure.org by emailing intimations@mure.org.

If your intimation is not electronic, please supply a copy to Christine Imrie or John McMillan.

It would be appreciated if any intimations for the following Sunday could be submitted by Wednesday evening.
