Senior Citizens

The new session continues tomorrow on the large hall at 2pm. All welcome

The Guild

The new session continues on Thursday at 2pm. Our guest speaker this week is Margaret Meek. A warm welcome is extended to all members, old and new.

Lodging House Mission Harvest Appeal 2024

Many thanks to the congregation, members of our Girls Brigade, members of our Boys Brigade and others who donated so generously at our Harvest Service.

Elizabeth and I delivered 2 car loads (39 full bags!) of food to the LHM which was gratefully received by the service users and staff including the Chaplain Claire Herbert.

Claire told us that the response to their Harvest Appeal enables them to continue to provide over 28,000 hot meals throughout the coming winter months. In addition to the food (and a few toiletries) which we delivered, the total of monetary donations at our Harvest Service currently stands at £250! Altogether this was a magnificent response from you all which is greatly appreciated.

My personal thanks to Elizabeth for assisting me to deliver the Harvest goods, and to Aileen and Moira for packing Elizabeth's car.

Family Guy Fawkes Evening

Mure Memorial and St Andrew's are hosting a Family Guy Fawkes Evening. Come and enjoy the view of the fireworks over Glasgow from the front of Mure Memorial Church, on Tuesday, 5th November, from 6 to 8 pm.

Hot dogs, burgers, tea and coffee will be provided. The children can also enjoy sparklers and toasting marshmallows. There will also be games like Giant Jenga and Giant Darts.

Please note: No more than four children per adult.

Should the weather not be kind to us, there will be a programme of activities in the halls for you to enjoy.

All welcome but pre-registration is required to allow for catering. Sheets will be available within the church or register online at
