Thank You- Anne Carmichael

It was a lovely surprise last Sunday to receive my bouquet of flowers and card on the occasion of my "retirement " from the position of Sunday School teacher. I would like to record my thanks to Sam for being such an able presenter, to Moira for her kind words and to all the children I had the privilege of teaching (and learning from!).

I would also like to thank the parents and families for their support.

In addition, I would like to thank all the Sunday School teachers with whom I worked for their fellowship and friendship, and also the Sunday School Superintendents for their advice and support. I would particularly like to mention Angela and the Patrick family for their assistance and encouragement over the last few years.

Thanks are also due to the Kirk Session and Congregation.

I would hope to continue to support the Church in our work with children and young people.
